THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. A. A. HOFFMAN WAS THE SCENE OF A PRETTY WEDDING ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, two and one-half miles south of Courtenay, was the scene, Wednesday evening, of the marriage of Mrs. Hoffman's sister, Miss Jessie Chloe Lesan, of Ottumwa, Iowa, to James Henry Wilson of Courtenay. The ceremony was read at six o'clock by Rev. John Noordewier, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Courtenay. Only members of the immediate families were present and the attendants were Miss Marie Bolstad of Viroana, Wisconsin, and Mr. Robert P. Lesan of Ottumwa, Iowa. After congratulations a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will live this winter on a farm one-half mile south of Courtenay and will move in the spring to the Albrecht farm southeast of Courtenay.
