

Mrs. Martin Falk while driving her horse in the rear of the hotel last Tuesday lost control of him and he dashed through the village at a threatening speed. The buggy struck a walk and was badly broken up. Mrs. Falk was thrown over a rod from the buggy and was fortunate in receiving no more serious injuries than a sprained ankle.

---