

John Haack is reported dangerously ill at the county hospital in Jamestown. He was taken sick Monday evening at his farm home southwest of Wimbledon and Dr. Wanner of this place summoned. The physician found the patient suffering from epilepsy and pronounced his case as serious. Wednesday the doctor procured a permit from Commissioner Welsh and Mr. Haack was taken to the county hospital at Jamestown. Mr. Haack is among the early settlers here and his many friends