

Andrew Haas and wife returned last night from a visit at Peter Haas' farm near Courtenay, where 14,000 bushels of grain have just been threshed. The trip was not devoid of incident, as they encountered a broken down automobile from Severn's livery and took the chaffeur and passengers aboard. Soon after this, the axle of the buggy broke from the force of the extra weight, and the entire party then walked to a nearby farm house (Herr Ottinger's) where conveyance was secured to the city at a late hour. —Alert.
