
FINED THEM BOTH

JOHN KOLSTROM AND JULIUS HOHENHOUSE WERE FINED BY JUSTICE BOUER FOR DISTURBING THE PEACE.

Last Saturday afternoon John Kolstrom and Julius Hokenhouse had an altercation in front of the Gazette office in which it appears Mr. Kolstrom was the under dog and immediately swore out a warrant for the arrest of his assailant. The dispute arose over some money matters and resulted in Mr. Kolstrom having to have his head sewed up by a physician. At the trial Mr. Kolstrom said Hohenhouse was the agressor and Mr. Hohenhouse said Kolstrom hit him first and as there were no witnesses the judge fined them $10 each for disturbing the peace. This was certainly a very amicable way of settling the dispute.
