

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McBride and family moved to Wimbledon on Wednesday where they will make their home and where Mr. McBride will have charge of the Orborne-McMillan elevator. This most estimable family have only resided in Courtenay about a year and during that time have made some fast friends who regret very much to have them go but wish them success in their new home and are glad that the distance between the two towns is not very great. Their only reason for making the change at this time was for the reason that there was no Catholic church in Courtenay and that made it very inconvenient for them to attend services and when the vacancy occurred there they were given the opportunity of going, and it was entirely optional with them.
