

John Miller of Finley had his house robbed in broad daylight and his watch stolen. When he caught the man in the act—he got his face badly pounded—and the man got away. Strange story