

Fritz Mutchelar, a prosperous and well known farmer from south of town, leaves today for Germany. Mr. Mutchelar has been a resident here for 23 years past, and during the last 18 years, has never traveled on a railroad train. He has been very successful since coming to North Dakota and thinks now he can afford to return and visit the old sod for a few months.—
Wimbledon News.