

Theodore Nelson has about recovered from an attack of typhoid fever and will resume his duties in the store next week unless he has another set back. He has had quite a seige and is glad to get out again as his friends are to see him out.

Elite Mutcheler a prosperous