

Lightning struck the home of Rev. Phillips of Jamestown and did considerable damage in the way of knocking off lath and plaster, mirrors, pictures, etc. Fortunately no one was hurt although pieces of plaster were flying around the sleeping room of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips.