

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

Plowing and seeding are in full swing in this vicinity.

W. W. Bemis returned last week from his old home in Wisconsin where he had been visiting for some time. He seems to be glad to get home again. Glad to see you Wallace.

Mrs. Ole Anderson, who has been very ill, is able to be around again.

John Kirkeby is working for his brother Mike this summer. We knew you would come back John.

Mrs. Christ Olson, who went to Minneapolis for medical advice, is expected home the last of the week.

Miss Tena Hoggarth of McHenry is working for Mr. Bradford's.

Rev. Shaver and wife came up from Bowden on Thursday and returned on Monday. They expect to reside there this summer.

Miss Pearl Bemis came up from Jamestown on Thursday and returned on Monday.

Our old friend John Robb, formerly of Courtenay, is working for Christ Olson. It seems like old times to see John's smiling countenance among us.

Ray Furman expects to leave shortly for Carrington where he will reside for the summer.

D. McClennan has closed a very successful term of school in the Bemis school house and left on Saturday for his home in Minnesota. He will be much missed in this vicinity. Success to you Duncan.

Miss Cook, sister of Mrs. George Kline, is visiting her sister at the parsonage.

Mr. Bond announces that he will hold services in the Bemis school house every Sunday at 2:30 in the afternoon. All are invited to come.

Mrs. Loren Syvertson is very sick and her many friends are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Swan Swanson says he had the time of his life on that trip to Wisconsin.
