

Pleasantview Notes

Our snow has vanished and nobody seems mad about it.

August Herder and Chas Kay left for the lumber woods on the 25th of November.

Rev. Shaver is conducting revival meetings in the church with good attendance.

Riley Sloan and Miss Stella Sloan left on the 30th for their home in Iowa. They will return in the spring.

Will Grasser and family left on November 24th for Minnesota where they will reside for the present.

Knute Knuteson is laid up with a sore hand, blood poisoning having set in. We hope he may soon be better.

Mr. and Mrs Henry Bond left on Tuesday for the South. They will visit in Minnesota on their way and from there will go to Kentucky.

John Bradford and family came up to Pleasantview and took in the oyster supper on the 26th. Come again Jack. By the way we think John likes oysters.

We learn from good authority that Pete Pearson and Miss Tena Thompson were married at Carrington on December 1st. Here is regards Pete. We smoke.

Mr. Andrew Pearson and Charles Hendrickson have gone on a visit to Sweden. We wish them a safe journey and a pleasant voyage over the Atlantic.

The oyster supper held at the residence of Charles Montgomery was socially a success, $20 being realized and the way the boys did eat oysters was something fierce.
