

Pleasantview Notes

Our open winter has developed into a real old fashioned winter and yet everyone in Pleasantview is alive and kicking.

Mac Turner has returned from an extended eastern trip and is so glad to get back to North Dakota that he smiles all over his face. He visited Chicago, London, Paisley, Ontario, waded around through five feet of snow and says he would not live on the best farm in Ontario if they would give it to him.

Miss Lenore Cole, who is attending school in Valley City, visited Mrs. Loren Syvertson on Saturday and Sunday.

Ole Anderson, Miss Solberg and Matt Paulson visited Courtenay on Saturday.

Knute Knuteson who has been working at Helena, was around shaking hands with the boys and girls.

Miss Westwood recommenced her school on Monday after a vacation of two or three weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. Shaver left on Monday for Crary where he is assisting Rev. Kline in holding revival meetings. Mr. Fred Kline will fill his appointments till he returns.

Hezakiah Masterson is visiting Jamestown at present and assisting in revival work there. 'That's right Hes, do all you can, the harvest is great and the reapers are few.

Robert and Grace Bradford visited Cooperstown on Friday.

Christ Kelson, who has been on the sick list is around again as lively as a cricket.

Henry Grasser and Rev. Kline visited Courtenay on Monday.

Charles Montgomery has decided to remain another season in North Dakota. He has taken the Berg place for another year. That settles it Charley, you will never go. They all do it and so must you.
