

Pleasantview Notes.

A fine rain visited this vicinity on the 13th. It happens we get rain this season just when we need it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bemis and Mr. and Mrs. Shaver went to Mayville to attend the Free Methodist camp meeting.

The Swedish Methodists held services in the Free Methodist church. The meeting was largely attended.

Miss Sadie Connels returned home from Hunter N. D., where she has been visiting her aunt.

Ray Furman and Miss Bessie visited Courtenay on Saturday.

Wm. Bradford visited his daughter, Mrs. M. D. Patterson, and returned home on Thursday.

Mack Turner started a couple of weeks ago for St. Louis to see the fair and on his journey some magnetic influence drew him to Paisley, Ontario, where we learn from good authority he has taken unto himself a wife. He is now in St. Louis taking in the sights and writes that he will be back by the last of July. Congratulations Mack. We wont have much of a time when you get back. Oh no I guess nit.

H. Bond and wife and Johnnie and Miss Sadie Bond took in the circus at Cooperstown on the 13th.
