

gentlemen joined in the purchase. Among the new boats for the lake this summer will be a gasoline launch ordered by John Bolinger which is expected shortly. A number of families and regular lake visitors are preparing to move out for the summer early in June.—Alert.

Pleasantview Notes.

The weather cranks are predicting drouth already.

Seeding is being rapidly pushed in this vicinity. Wheat and oats seem to be flourishing.

Lawyer Coffey and F. Grasser made a flying business trip to Pleasantview. Mr. Coffey has purchased the Grasser farm.

Veterinary Surgeon Langford made a professional visit to Pleasantview last week.

Mrs. J. W. Wilsie met with a serious accident. She was thrown from her horse and hurt quite seriously. Dr. Macdonald is attending her.

Rev. Shaver has laid aside the clerical costume and is driving four prancing horses for W. W. Bemis. The reverend gentleman believes in doing with his might what his hands find to do.

The ladies of the Free Methodist church will give a missionary entertainment in the church on June 15th at 8 o'clock in the evening. The entertainment will consist of dialogues, recitations, duets, solos, essays, etc. The entertainment is under the supervision of Mrs. Shaver and Mrs. Bemis, which is a surety of its being O. K. All are invited.

On Sunday, May 22d, a Sunday school was organized at the Bemis school house. C. H. Ede was elected superintendent and Bible class teacher. It was decided to meet every Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. Awake ye sluggards and come and enjoy a profitable hour.

Miss Grace Bradford left last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. M. D. Patterson of Bowden.

Mrs. William Howden, one of the old pioneers of Griggs county, died suddenly at her home on May 21st. The funeral was largely attended and the remains were interred in the Cooperstown cemetery.

Real Estate Transfers

Frank L. Kellogg and wife to Herman Neumann, NE 10-139-66, $760.

Mary C. Dwyer and husband to Joseph Stoullil, lot 12, block 2, original Medina, $200.

Geo L. Storer and wife to Frank A. Lenz, lots 9 and 10 block 73, Klaus 3rd addition, $1.

H. L. Lloyd to Henry C. Nierling, lots 9 and 10, block 51, Klaus addition, $1.

O. M. McWherter and wife to Henry C. Nierling, lot 9, block 50, Klaus addition, $1.

J. C. Lund and wife to W. G. Shaffer, et al. NW 1, W $\frac{1}{2}$ 3, all 21, 33-140-63 and E $\frac{1}{2}$ 25-140-62, \$40,000.

Mary E. Taylor to James Charles Lees, NW 15-142-64, $800.

N. P. Ry Co., to N. Land & Inv. Co., NW 11-137-63.

Bridget Will and husband to E. P. Olson, lot 8, block 4, Hill's addition to Medina, $200.

Effie A. Williams, $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in SE $\frac{1}{4}$ 5-137-62, \$50.

The Best Cough Medicine.

I sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of all similar preparations put together and it gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I ever sold. I guarantee every bottle of it.—F. C. Jaquith, Inland, Mich. This remedy is for sale by H. J. Murphy.

Girl's Novel Tour.

Madeline Cauchet a young girl from Paris has just made a tour of the world without a sou in her pocket giving lessons in French to pay her way. She took four years for the journey, and traveled through Belgium, England, America, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, Siberia, Russia, Germany, etc. Miss Cauchet will soon recount her experiences before the Paris Society of Geography.