
Pleasantview Notes

(Special Correspondence)

William Watson, a well known young man of Pleasantview, was very much interested in the furniture sale at H. B. Grasser's, and had his lady partner pick out some very useful articles. So we can be in hopes of another wedding surprise in the near future. That's all right Billy, even if the last girl is picked out. Don't delay while the chance is good.
