

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

Seeding has been delayed on account of the rain and snow but everyone is digging in again.

Mack Turner and Will Allen visited Carrington on Thursday.

Ray Connell came up from Kensal on Saturday.

There will be a school opened in the Norwegian Lutheran church to be conducted in the Scandinavian language.

Frank Kingsley expects to receive his automobile the last of the week. It is an eight horse power of the most improved make. Success to you Frank, we will give you the road and take off our old hat.

The Methodist church one mile east of Robert Bailey's is to be dedicated on June 4th. It is a beautiful building and stands a monument to the cause and advancement of religion.

There will be preaching services at the Howden school house every Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. Come out and hear a good sermon.

What makes the farmers go around with that beautiful look of peace on earth and good will toward their neighbors on their faces. Why, it is that snow storm of course.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Allen visited McHenry on Saturday.

Mrs. W. W. Bemis and mother and Tom Bradford visited Courtenay on Saturday.

W. A. Furman and little girl are working for H. C. Leean.

John E. Sutton is soon to begin hauling rocks for the foundation of his new residence.

Miss Tena Hoggarth, who has been working for Mr. Bradford, went to her home on Saturday.

Will Hoggarth was rounding up cattle for his herd which he will run on the Jim river this season.
