

Pleasantview Notes

Weather: Sunshine, rain and snow.

Fred Grasser of Valley City, made a flying business trip to Pleasantview and visited old acquaintances.

H. N. Tucker was up looking over his farm last week.

Ed Thurlow returned on Wednesday from a trip to Assinaboia looking fat and hearty. Ed says he did not see anything out there to compare with North Dakota.

Joseph Hoggarth, a brother of Tom and Will, is visiting his brothers in this vicinity.

Lawyer Coffey of Courtenay visited Pleasantview on Tuesday. He is thinking of purchasing the Grasser place.

Martin McWethy visited Coopers-town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bemis visited Jamestown in company with Rev. Charles Heath and wife.

Misses Bessie Furman and Anna Moore visited Courtenay on Tuesday.

Mr. McMillan began a term of school in the Bemis school house on Wednesday.

Seeding is being rapidly pushed in this vicinity. Who will be through first? Don't all speak at once.

There are quite a number of cases of glanders among horses in this vicinity. We think the state veterinary for this district should attend to business a little better than he has done.
