The Free Methodist church was dedicated on November 5th in the McHenry district. Rev. Charles Heath of Rockland, Kentucky, preached the dedication sermon at 2:30 p. m. The church was packed with people. The meeting opened by singing the hymn, "Jehovah's Presence." Prayer was offered by Presiding Elder Ballinger, after which Rev. Heath preached from the words, "And the Glory of the Lord Filled the House." It was an eloquent discourse. At the close of the sermon Presiding Elder Bollinger announced that a debt of $200 remained on the church and this was subscribed by the congregation. This was followed by prayer by Rev. Heath dedicating the church to Almighty God. The doxology was sung and the meeting dismissed by Rev. Heath with the benediction and the people went to their homes feeling that it was good to have been there.
