

Pleasant iew Notes

That blizzard was a dandy. We will possibly have spring by the last of May.

Miss Dena Solberg left on Sunday for John Simonson's, where she will reside this summer.

Amandus Peterson and Miss Bessie Furman visited Mrs. Moore and Miss Anne Moore Sunday.

Anton Kelson returned to North Dakota looking fat and hearty and satisfied with the country in general.

Miss Westwood closed a very successful term of school at the Bemis school house on Saturday. Miss Westwood is an excellent teacher and it will be hard to find a teacher who has given such good satisfaction.

We regret that the writer of those special Pleasantview items did not sign his name. Better send in your name so we can enjoy an intellectual treat.

Knute Knuteson is busy preparing to build on his farm north of McWethy's.
