

Pleasantview Notes.

Haying, summerfollowing, and dancing and going to church are now in order.

Loren Syverson, our genial road overseer, finished up on the 26th. As a path master Loren is all right.

Mrs. J. W. Wilsie is now able to be out and take short drives. We are glad she is improving.

Martin McWelthy and family visited Courtenay on Tuesday and had their photos taken by the Courtenay photographer. Remember your friends Mart when they are done.

William Carrels of Chertley, Ont., brother of Mrs. Green and Mrs. Bradford, is visiting his sisters and other relations in Pleasantview this week.

W. W. Bemis and Rev. Shaver are busily engaged breaking horses these days.

Fred Kline is again doing muscular exercises for W. W. Bemis. Fred expects to go to college in Illinois, where he will take a theological course. We wish him success.

John Sutton is putting up a barn which will be a fine building when completed.

Miss Dolly Boyd of Haven, N. D., is working for J. W. Wilsie.

Gust Rudd and Oscar Sandwall are digging a well for Tom Bradford.
