

Pleasantview Notes.

John E. Sutton visited McHenry on Monday.

J. W. Wilsie has his new residence about completed.

Austin Porter and wife visited Will Allen and family on Sunday.

Grain is flourishing in this vicinity although a little rain would do no harm.

Rev. Riddle of Courtenay paid Pleasantview a visit. We invite him to come again.

Miss Pearl Bemis and Mrs. Patterson visited Miss Annie and Mrs. Moore on Monday.

W. W. Bemis and wife drove up to Fessenden to attend the camp meeting held at that place.

Amandus Paterson and Miss Bessie Furman paid Pleasantview postoffice a flying visit on Saturday.

Miss Nellie Grobe, teacher of No. 2 in Eastman school district, is boarding at Martin McWethy's.

Turner & Allen have broken the entire section they purchased from Wm. Glass. They are hustlers.

Oscar Kelson went to his old home in Wisconsin to spend the Fourth. We hope you had a good time, Oscar.

Mrs. Frank Sanford of Valley City is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kingsley, and her sisters in this vicinity this week.

Martin McWethy is visiting relatives at Wyoming, New York. A pleasant trip and a safe journey home to you, Martin.

John Sutton is laying the foundation for a new residence that, when completed, will be equal to if not better than any residence in the county.

William Bradford, who was operated on by Dr. Macdonald for cancer, on July 4th, is getting along nicely. The doctor is all O. K. when he is needed.

Irvin Clafin and the Connells spent the Fourth at Jamestown and stopped at Spiritwood lake on the way home and did some fishing. We have not heard any fish stories yet.

The people who were always crying for dry weather are getting just what they asked for now and they are kicking because they think the rust has struck the wheat. Some people would kick if they were going to be hung with a new rope.

Ned Bond, who left for Seattle, Wash., last winter, writes that he is sick of the country and says that we may see his shadow most any time. We knew you would come back, Ned. Nobody who has lived in North Dakota can stay away.
