

Pleasantview Notes.

And once more it rains and everyone seems to be satisfied. Let it rain and don't try to stop a good thing.

The Lutheran Scandinavian church gave an ice cream dinner at the church. A pleasant and social time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Turner visited Courtenay on Tuesday.

Frank Sanford of Valley City came up in his auto on Saturday and remained over until Monday.

John McWethy visited Cooperstown on Monday.

Oscar Legwold is working for Mack Turner. Glad to see you Oscar.

Anton Kelson is again with us. You could not stay away from North Dakota for ten months could you.

Mr. Michaelson and son are doing the stone work for John Sutton's new residence.

Irvin Claffin has a large force of men haying. He intends to take time by the scirelock.

Ray Connells visited at Furman's on Sunday.

It is harder to dodge the rain drops than the road overseer these days.