

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

*Hurrah for the rain and everyone is happy. It was a hummer and don't you forget it.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Turner drove to Spiritwood lake on Tuesday and stayed with Mr. and Mrs. D. Patterson. Look out for fish stories when Mack gets back.

Tom Bradford visited Spiritwood lake on Tuesday. Fisherman's luck to you Tom. Come back with a few nice pickerel and invite us to dinner.

Archy Gorthy has contracted 150 acres of breaking from Turner & Allen.

J. W. Wilsie has a large gang of carpenters and masons at work, and is putting up a modern residence.

Seeding is about completed in this vicinity. Grain is coming up and looks fine and we think there is the promise of an abundant harvest.

Miss Nellie Grobe of Cleveland, N. D., has commenced a term of school in the Bemis school house. Miss Grobe comes highly qualified as a teacher, holding a state certificate. We wish her success.

Gilbert Fadness visited Cooperstown on Thursday.

P. R. Trubshaw, editor of the Cooperstown Courier, thought he would attend the dedication services of the Mildred Hartman Memorial church on June 4th and started in his automobile to get a good seat, but when he got about half way the machine bucked and Percy got to church in time for the benediction. Next time you had better start the day before Percy.
