

PLEASANTVIEW NOTES

Winter seems to lingering in the lap of spring.

Seeding is being rapidly pushed in this vicinity and a good rain will make everything lovely.

The dry weather crank is abroad in this beautiful land and dire are his predictions.

Mrs. Christ Olson returned from the cities accompanied by her sister, *Mrs. Plurid, who will visit in this vicinity this summer.

Tom and Grace Bradford made a flying business trip to Cooperstown on Monday. Tom lost a valuable mare a few days ago worth at least $200.

Wilt Wilsie is hauling stone for the foundation of his new residence. There is going to be quite a boom on building in this vicinity this year which is a sign of prosperity, with some people.

Ray Connell, Miss Sadie Connell and Miss Bessie Furman visited Courtenay on Friday. There are no flies on Ray.

Mack Turner expects to start breaking his section 31 this week. We expect to see the sods flyng so thick that the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give her light.

M. Sheldon was through this vicinity rounding up cattle for the herd. Merritt expects to go into banishment this season away out among the hills southwest of Carrington.

Miss Anna Bond is on the sick list and had to close her school as a consequence.
