

Pleasantview Notes

Irwin Claffin returned from the woods last Tuesday.

Frank Kingsley made a business trip to Iowa last week. Frank says Iowa is much the same as Dakota. The farmers were unable to do any thing on account of the backward spring.

Mrs. Kingsley has been very sick with the grippe but is slowly improving.

Taylor Hutchison and H. Williams started plowing on the 26th and it will take a big blizzard to check their mad race around the field.

Mr. and Mrs. Bemis spent Saturday and Sunday at Bald Hill where they attended quarterly meetings.

Rev. Charles Heath presiding elder preached on Thursday evening at the Free-Methodist church.

Mike Kirkeby was snaring gophers on Monday. Mike vows vengeance on the flicker tails this season.

Mrs. Christ Kelson has been on the
