

Pleasantview Notes.

Rev. Charles Heath, presiding elder of the Free Methodist church, held quarterly meetings and also preached his farewell sermon on Sunday, August 28th. Mr. Heath has many friends in this vicinity who are sorry to see him leave as he intends to reside in Kentucky in the future where he will engage in the home mission work.

Harvesting is now in full swing and there is every indication of a bountiful harvest as the grain appears to be well filled.

John E. Sutton has put up a fine barn on his farm which is a credit to the community. John intends to erect a fine house next summer.

We learn that Faulk Larson is putting up a fine residence on his farm which when completed will be one of the nobbiest houses in the country. When is it going to happen, Faulk? We look for an invitation when it happens.

Miss Elsie Furman, Mrs. Harrington and Geo. Goodrich came up from Jamestown on August 28th and visited at Mr. and Mrs. W. Furman's. They returned on the 31st.

Robert Crookshanks of Grand Valley, Ontario, Canada, is visiting his sister and brother. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery. Mr. Crookshanks has been all over Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest and thinks North Dakota beats them all and declares with the right hand raised that he will move out here this coming spring.

Christ Nelson has purchased a new Garr Scott separator and intends showing 'em how to thresh this fall. Christ is a hustler.

Mrs. Hulda Peterson left Sunday for Kensal where she will cook on Mr. Holme's car this fall.

Ervin Chafflin threshed 1400 bushels of barley for Tom Bradford.
