

A letter from Abe Posey states that they reached Wichita, Kansas, March 10th, and found the peach trees all in bloom and the gardens nearly all planted. The prospects are the very best for a big crop. The fall wheat looks well and the farmers are busy putting in oats and potatoes and other crops. They are now settled at 1024 N. Ohio St., and want the Gazette to keep posted on matters in this part of the country.