

Abe Posey reached home Saturday evening from Wichita, Kansas, where he had been looking up a business location. He found the bees buzzing around in that country and farmers planting potatoes and he liked the appearance of things so well that he will return about the first of April and engage in business. He will have an auction on the 9th of this month and dispose of his personal property and will straighten up his business affairs preparatory to moving.