

Mrs. George Pratt is in a very critical condition at the present time, she having had a stroke of paralysis a short time ago which completely paralysed her left side. Much sympathy is expressed for the family and it is hoped she may soon recover.