

T. J. Atwood, J. A. Coffey, Andrew Sinclair, J. H. Miller and Jerome Parks went to Jamestown today on legal business. Attorneys Coffey and Parks will make arguments before Judge Glaspell.

A younger brother of Hugo Riebe has been seriously ill for some time with brain fever. Dr. Longstreth, who has been in attendance has had quite a novel experience in reaching his patient each day. The recent floods have made the bridges at the river and lake impassable and the doctor has driven each day to a certain point on this side of the river where he has tied his team to an old separator and where he has been met by Mr. Riebe in a boat, by which means the balance of his trip has been accomplished. The sick boy is doing nicely and is now out of danger.—Kensal Journal.

Miss Inez Atwood gave a party for a number of her friends at her home yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the celebration of the thirteenth anniversary of her birth. Those present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Crawford arrived yesterday morning from Seneca, Wisconsin, and will make their home in Courtenay, and for the present will occupy the Dennis residence on the north side. Mr. Crawford has accepted a position with F. G. Lundeen in his general store. He is an experienced merchant, having been engaged in the business for a number of years in Wisconsin and no doubt will be able to render efficient service in the conducting of this large establishment.
