

Tony Scheler opened his restaurant Monday evening with a free supper and entertained a large number of guests. He has fitted up his building in good shape and is running an up-to-date restaurant, and no doubt will get and hold his share of the trade.