

James R. Porter and David Waddle departed Tuesday night for Edmonton, Alberta, to seek their fortune in the Canadian clime. They have been in this neighborhood a couple of years and are known to be gentlemen with an ambition to get on in the world. Mrs. Porter will follow a little later, or as soon as her husband secures a place of abode. For the present she is stopping with Mrs. George Murdock.