

Robert Walker spent Wednesday at Jamestown attending to matters of business. Mr. Walker has purchased the warehouse of Larson & Miller and will fix it up for a hotel. He is now engaged in excavating the basement and will put it on a stone foundation and make a first-class building out of it. It is not his intention to complete the work this fall but will work as long as the weather will permit and will complete it in the spring.

---