

Now comes Dave Wellman of Wells county who thanks his friends through the state who recently fed and housed an old man who gave out that<sup>d</sup> he was Dave's uncle or father or relative and he was walking out here from Pennsylvania to see him. Dave says it's all right except, that his father has been dead for some years and he never had a wife. Mr. Wellman says the tramp played it strong evidently and must have gotten lots of free entertainment in the spare rooms and best beds of many a family.—Capital.
