

DEATH OF OLE ANDERSON

ONE OF THE OLDEST RESIDENTS OF THIS COMMUNITY DIED ON SUNDAY NIGHT AFTER MORE THAN A YEAR'S ILLNESS.

Ole Anderson who resides a few miles northwest of town died on Sunday night about 11:30. For the past sixteen months Mr. Anderson had been in poor health, being afflicted with a cancer in his stomach and death had been expected at any moment for the past several months.

Ole Anderson was born in Sweden on March 24th, 1840 and had he lived until the 24th of the present month would have been 65 years of age. He came directly to North Dakota from Sweden in the year 1889 and began farming in 1893 on the same farm where he died. He was a hard working, industrious farmer and during the years that he farmed in this country acquired three quarters of good land with good buildings and all the necessary personal property to conduct the farm in proper shape. He is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters. The boys are William, Theodore, Axtell and Carl and the daughters are Mrs. Nels Johnson who resides here and Mrs. John Alquist and Mrs. Charles Johnson who reside in New York city.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Stinson preaching the sermon. Interrment took place in the Courtenay Cemetery where the remains were followed by a large concourse of friends.
