

Last week Thursday morning at the city hospital at Jamestown occurred the death of Charles Campbell. He was 88 years of age and had always led an eventful life, having been for five years in the regular army of the United States prior to the Mexican war. He is the father of W. N. Campbell of Valley City and E. N. Campbell of Ypsilanti of this county and also leaves a wife and daughter in South Dakota.