

Ordinary wheat.

George E. Clough of Spiritwood died last week Thursday night at his home in Jamestown and the funeral was held on Saturday. Deceased was 57 years of age and was a veteran of the Civil war, serving as corporal of Co. I, 3d regiment Vermont volunteers. He had resided in the vicinity of Spiritwood for the past eight years.