

Nels Engen of Fargo was killed in Traill county last Friday while attempting to cross a bridge with an engine. Mr. Engen was an expert for the Buffalo Pitts Company and had been sent up there to deliver this engine and while passing over a bridge on the Goose river the bridge gave way and he was pinned to the bottom of the river with the engine on top of him.