

attendance.

Christ Gilbertson, a blacksmith of Wimbledon, died last week of pneumonia. He had lived in Wimbledon for several years and was a highly respected citizen of the town. The remains were shipped to Minnesota for burial.