

Henry M. Potter of Jamestown died on Saturday after a week's illness with pneumonia. Mr. Potter was a veteran of the civil war and served with General Sherman in his famous "march to the sea." For the past fifteen years he was janitor at the court house at Jamestown and was a faithful employe. He was 65 years old.