

Mrs. A. N. Scoville died at her home in Wisconsin on Jan. 28th of pneumonia after a brief illness. Mrs. Scoville will be remembered by many in this vicinity, she having spent the greater part of last fall here with Mr. Scoville who was running a threshing machine. Their son, Charlie Scoville, went home to attend the funeral.