

John H. Walker, who went to Donnybrook from here a year ago last spring, died on Monday of this week. We have been unable to obtain full particulars but will probably be able to state more regarding the death later. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen until a couple of months ago when he became delinquent.