

AN OLD SETTLER GONE

---

MISS DORA WHITBECK DIED SUDDENLY ON SUNDAY AND HER DEATH WAS VERY UNEXPECTED AND CAME AS A SHOCK TO HER MANY FRIENDS.

---

Miss Dora E. Whitbeck died suddenly on Sunday and her death came as a shock to her many friends. For the past year she had been having some trouble with her heart and had taken some medical treatment but she was not thought to be in a serious condition. Four weeks ago she spent about a week at Jamestown taking treatment and was thought to be improving and on Sunday was able to eat dinner with the rest of the family. Shortly after dinner she was taken worse and while being assisted to the bed sank down on her knees and expired a few minutes later.

Miss Dora E. Whitbeck was born in Monroe county, New York, in the year 1856 where she resided until about twenty-four years ago when she moved to Michigan where she spent about four years before coming to North Dakota, where she has since resided. She came here with her two brothers, Andrew and Peter, and has kept house for them all of the time. Besides these two brothers she leaves two sisters, Mrs. George Wright, who resides here, and Mrs. Cook who resides in Michigan, and another brother, J. H. Whitbeck, who resides at Mount Hope, Kansas, to mourn her sudden demise. They are all highly respected people and Miss Whitbeck made a friend of everyone with whom she became acquainted.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church on Tuesday at 11 o'clock, Rev. Hewson of Wimbledon preaching the sermon. The funeral was largely attended and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Courtenay cemetery.

---