

A boy at D. Newels, a good straight republican who will be old enough to vote by 1913 and we've no doubt he will crow for Blaine or some other good man before the year is out.