

Married—at Jamestown, N. D., on Wednesday evening, November 25th, 1891, by Rev. J. Conolly, J. S. Byington of Cooperstown, N. D., and Miss Nora Sullivan, of Hainesville, Ill.

Friday evening we discovered from the register of the Palace Hotel that John S. Byington and Miss Nora Sullivan, had, unknown to their friends, gone quietly to Jamestown and got welded together by the holy bonds of wedlock as man and wife. While we do not approve of them doing this without saying something about it to us, we heartily extend to the happy couple our hearty congratulations. The bridegroom is one of Griggs county's hustling and prosperous young farmers, owns a fine farm and is on the high road to prosperity. The bride has been for the past few years one of Griggs county's highly respected school teachers. The young couple have a host of friends and acquaintances who heartily wish them unlimited happiness and prosperity.
