

WEDDING BELLS.

Mr. Charley Houghton and Miss Bertie Langford were married on Thursday evening, March 4th, 1892, at Alta Vista farm, Cooperstown, N. D., the residence of the bride's parents. Rev. C. W. Collinge, of Wheatland, officiating. At 8:30 p. m., on that evening the young couple stood up and joined hands and in a very few minutes the words were spoken that united them together for life. After the ceremony the happy couple were kept busy receiving the congratulations of their friends. After this pleasing part of the ceremony was performed, the guests, to the number of sixty, sat down to a fine supper. Many valuable and handsome gifts were received by the bride and bridegroom. The COURIER extends hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Charley Houghton, and hopes that they may have a long, prosperous and happy life. For the present their home is with Mr. and Mrs. John Houghton. Later in the spring they will erect a house on their own farm adjoining the Houghton Bros., farm west of town where they will permanently reside.
