Married—at Cooperstown, Dec., 1890, by Rev. O. D. Purinton, Mr. Frederick R. Lilly and Miss Carrie E. Dier, of Dazey, N. D. Now it is a little unkind of Fred to go and get married and say nothing about it, especially as we saw him a few moments before he went to the parson, but we forgive him, and join with a host of friends in wishing him happiness. Mr. Lilly is a popular young man, respected by his neighbors and if ye dit is any physiognomist, from the pas ing glance he got at the bride, he a cky young man—in our judgment,
