

---

Nels Arneson had a lively runaway Wednesday. His team became unmanageable and ran away running into a wagon occupied by Frank Gorthy and Herman Husel. The shock turned the wagon upside down and landed the boys headfirst into a mud puddle. No damage was done except to break the buggy pole.

---