

Ed. Blackwell and T. E. Warner got badly fooled at Grand Forks last week. They had a room at the Dakota that was lighted by gas and when they went to bed the light was left burning. Some time during the night Ed. Blackwell waked up and lit out of bed as fast as he could and out he went into the hall closely followed by Ed. Warner both in full night toilet, and neither saying a word. In waking up suddenly and seeing the lighted gas jet they thought the hotel was on fire and climbed out of bed in a hurry. After looking at each other for a minute or so the boys realized how they had been fooled and climbed back into bed.
